

Title of abstract, centred, in bold

Full-length abstract (for the selection process): 500 to 1000 words long, excluding references. It should state research questions, approach, method, data and results. Please highlight any new findings (e.g. facts, interpretations, theoretical implications, practical applications) that your work contains.

Short abstract (for publication in the conference programme): 100-200 words.

References (optional), in alphabetical order

Three to five keywords in italics

RELEVANT TOPIC/DOMAIN IN HISTORICAL PRAGMATICS

Type of intended contribution (full paper, work-in-progress report, poster)